TODAY'S TOPIC:
JOSEPH'S SPECIAL COAT

A long time ago there was a man named Jacob and he had 12 sons. One of his younger sons, Joseph, was very special to Jacob and he made him a special coat with many different colors. Joseph felt very special in his new coat but his older brothers became jealous of the special treatment Jacob was giving to Joseph.

Joseph would help his brothers with the sheep and several times, he told his brothers about dreams he was having. In these dreams, Joseph was the king over all of his brothers. This made the brothers even more angry with Joseph. One day the brothers made some very bad decisions and sent Joseph far far away so they would not have to hear about Joseph or his dreams anymore.

Joseph must have been afraid but he learned that God was with him no matter where he went. He also learned that God had a plan for him and would use Joseph for a special purpose.
