

Kim & Yvonne Heinbaugh Alaska

With the warmer temperatures and longer days, outdoor activities increase too! Along with our ministry here we are also privileged to live close to our kids and grandkids. All but one of our six grandkids lives within a stone's throw of our house.

Recently a few folk back east have inquired about our children and grandchildren so I thought I'd fill you all in! This year marks our 28th year of ministry in Alaska and our 26th year here in the Copper River Valley! Seems impossible that that many years could have ticked by!

In February Joshua, our oldest son, entered his fourteenth year as an Alaska State Trooper. Many of you have told us you have seen him on the Alaska State Troopers TV program! His wife Amber is a locally born and raised Alaskan and together they have given us five fun loving grandkids: Keegen (14), Wieland (8), Naomi (7), Dollie (5), and Ehren (3).

Jesse, who actually celebrated his sixth birthday in a converted school bus during our long drive north back in 1989 when we first moved here, works for the National Park Service and currently oversees all trail building and trail maintenance in the 13.2 million acres Wrangell St. Elias National Park (WMST). As Alaska is big, so are our National Parks. Yellowstone Nat. Park, Yosemite Nat. Park, and the country of Switzerland combined would fit within the boundaries of WMST National Park!

Hannah, our youngest is married and living in the Richmond, Virginia area. She and her husband Caleb have blessed us with grandchild # 6 Joshua (1)! We are so thankful for current technology that allows for instant sharing of pictures and videos over great distances! As "old dogs", we have gladly learned this new trick and use it often.

One unpleasant update to share with you is about our Dollie girl. Recently after an emergency situation for her, she was diagnosed with Type 1 Diabetes. What a shock and adjustment it has been! It involved an emergency trip into Anchorage 200 miles away and lots of training and changes for all of us. It has been a challenging month to be sure, but as has been the case all these years, we find God right there comforting and reassuring us; helping us shoulder the grief, sorrow, and questions that arise. We thank you for the constant prayers and support that you send our way and covet that they would continue as together we move forward in these new challenges.
