

Andy & Megan Thoman

Every semester brings its own challenges and opportunities. The current semester is no different with many new exciting opportunities. Recently, we appointed two new staff to work at the UW-Oshkosh chapter. They are currently raising support. At Lakeshore Technical College there are new students opening up to lead their chapter in new ways. At UW O we have new small group leaders planting groups. Oshkosh has been selected for an InterVarsity New Staff Formation module, in which I will be helping to organize and equip new IV staff from around the region for ministry. I am currently serving on a team to help re-do our Fall Conference material, and another team to plan our annual regional staff conference to serve staff from the Dakotas to the Upper Peninsula. I am continually humbled that God uses me to do this work with the schools around here and to impact schools in several states in the area. I've seen how these events and opportunities have had lasting kingdom impact through stories of alumni of years past and in my own life and my peers'. I'm excited to see what God does next with all these new opportunities to partner with God's work!

Just in case the news hasn't made it to you yet, we will be having a daughter in April! Megan and I are so excited for this next stage in our life. Thank you all for your prayers and support. I look forward to continually sharing ministry with you all and sharing in the next season of life with you!

Please Pray for...

- New Student Leaders:

We have added several newer small group leaders and members to our leadership teams. Pray for wisdom and growth as these students step into places of ministry.

- Outreach events

With the new semester comes many outreach events. Pray that we meet many students and follow up well.

- Conferences

Spring semester has many student training conferences (Wincon, HC3, MUP, CFW). Pray for fruitful training for students to do mission back on campus and after college.

- Funding

I am still focusing much on getting back to a sustainable amount of resources for the ministry. Pray for more ministry partners for this work.
