Kim & Yvonne Heinbaugh - Alaska

Greetings again from the Copper River Valley of Alaska! Like you, our lives here have faced many challenging changes, as “normal” has all but vanished. The cautious response to COVID-19 and the ensuing social distancing have affected the lives of everyone. On the “Road System” yet isolated by hundreds of miles to the population centers, the Copper River Valley has thankfully had no known cases of the virus.

The entire Valley including schools, businesses, churches, and the village corporations have come together to cooperate with the stringent isolation and social distancing directives of the state.

Currently, use of the Tazlina Village Hall continues to be restricted. However, over the past six weeks we have been able to assemble ourselves as a congregation for outdoor praise and worship services. Surprisingly, these services have been well received, reaching a high attendance of 25 adults! That’s a bit higher attendance than before the pandemic.

With all the restrictions, our Christian radio station KCAM has stepped up to fill the gap by thinking out of the box and really helping keep the Valley united by providing special local preaching programs! Dennis and I both have been featured on their programming multiple times. Another unforeseen blessing for us as a fellowship has been the increased use of social media for the preaching and encouragement of God’s people. Dennis started a weekly preaching “watch group” that continues to grow! He has recently added local musicians who join him in providing a full worship service by way of YouTube. Another man Kirk, who has been fellowshiping with us for about six months now and is growing like a weed in his relationship with Christ has also taking to the internet and shares a daily devotional thought right from his home! He shared the other week that people from 22 different states tune in to hear him speak each and every day.

With the national restrictions of the virus easing, coupled with our personal desire to see our aging parents and grandkids, Yvonne and I have taken a somewhat spontaneous approach to the current flight deals we have recently come across. They are some of the cheapest tickets we have seen in the past twenty years! So, we headed back east for a few weeks. Most of our time was spent in Virginia with Caleb and Hannah, however we were in Pennsylvania two different times in June and again in July.

May we say again, “Thank You!” for being part of God’s work through us here! It seems impossible that this August we entered our 31st year of ministry to the people of Alaska!

Kim & Yvonne
