Life after Death?

I. The Resurrections (John 5:28-29)

There will be a resurrection to life or judgment for everyone.

II. The Resurrected Bodies (1 Corinthians 15:35-44)

The resurrected bodies of the saints will be glorious!

III. The Resurrection Paths (Romans 3:20-28)

All will be condemned for works, some will be justified for faith.

Am I on the path of life, or of judgment?

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

1. You probably know people who believe in a resurrection to life in heaven, and people who don't. Do you see any difference in their lives? Explain.

2. Read these passages about resurrection. John 5:28-29; Daniel 12:1-2; 1 Thessalonians 4:14-17; and Revelation 20:11-15. What stands out to you in each passage, and in these passages together?

What response does reading about these resurrections move you towards? Why?

3. 1 Corinthians 15:35-44 and Philippians 3:20-21 give a picture of what the resurrection bodies of believers will be like. Read these passages. What is most appealing to you right now about possessing a new body?

4. Read Romans 3:20-28. Who will, and who won't, be justified to receive resurrection to new life? Why?

5. In Matthew 7:13-14 Jesus spoke of two gates. Where does each lead?

In verses 24-27 Jesus told a parable of building a house. How does the parable add meaning to verses 13-14, and verses 21-23?

Are you on the wide or narrow path? Explain.
