The End?

I. Isaac's Wife (24:62-67)

As God works out His plan and purposes, trust and obedience are our contribution.

II. Abraham's Life (25:1-11)

God's plan and purposes and workings go beyond our lives.

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

1. Whose death, funeral, and burial spoke the most to you? Why?

2. Read the account of Isaac and Rebekah first meeting in Genesis 24:62-67. How is verse 66 important to understanding their marriage?

Why is this significant to God's dealings with Abraham?

List some of the more important things that are God's provision in your life. Then list 3-5 of the promises God has given you that are most important to you.

How are God's provisions related to His promises in your life?

3. What is the significance of recording Abraham taking Keturah as a wife, and listing her sons in Genesis 25:1-6?

Why would Abraham give gifts and send his other sons away, and give all the inheritance to Isaac?

What does this say about our concept of fairness and equality in relation to How God deals with people? (See also Matthew 20:1-16 & Romans 9:9-21)

4. Read Genesis 25:7-11. What is significant about Abraham's burial and why?

Think about God's purpose and provisions in your life. What would you want your final days or years and burial to reflect? Is there anything you could do differently now to facilitate that happening?
