Missionaries Andy & Megan Thoman – InterVarsity

The Thoman household is experiencing many transitions. We've added to our family with the birth of our son, Wesley, on October 27. Our schedules have also been shifting more than usual, and new things we're involved with this year all add to this season being hectic and busy. Though they are all good transitions, it's still much to juggle, pray for discernment and energy for us.

Though we still have many of our flagship campuses running strong like UW-Oshkosh, UW-Stevens Point, and Lawrence University, we also have some of our small campuses that took a big hit last year. I've been trying to help Lakeshore Technical College and Fox Valley Technical College regain their footing with the few leaders that are part of the group. I'm reminded of Gideon's army of 300, though it was small, God wanted it to be that way to show God's power. We know these are God's ministries on these campuses, so we are excited to see the opportunities God opens for us or where God directs us. Other campuses like UW-Green Bay have been completely replanted. Starting from nothing is intimidating anytime, but particularly during a global pandemic! We've taken steps forward to meet students and faculty in new and creative ways, while maintaining responsible procedures for the health of the community. We've already seen so much opportunity. We had many new students involved at all three of these smaller chapters at the beginning of the year, now I am just working on developing leadership teams at these schools. I am both filled with excitement and nervous for what happens next, but my trust is in the knowledge that what God wants to happen, will happen.

If you remember from previous updates, or perhaps you were involved with this group, about a year ago I was trying to create a community of volunteers in the area to serve the campuses. I had one meeting before the state went into lockdown and campuses mostly closed. My efforts to create this group struggled last year, so I put it on pause. I'm now trying to revitalize this. We had our first meeting this fall with a large group of people from the Appleton area. I'm excited to see how God uses volunteers from the area to serve these campuses. If you're interested in giving of your time to serve students and faculty, please don't hesitate to text or call me. I plan to host more interest meetings in Oshkosh and Green Bay as well.
