Missionaries Tim & Cheryl Gilley, Awana

For two full days, leaders from all over the world gathered together to talk about the priority of children's ministry in a post-Christian culture, and that time was filled with thought-provoking challenges, biblical truth, and vision. The children in our ministries will be the leaders in the church of 2050 – grounded in the biblical discipleship they experience today. How are we helping them to learn what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in the midst of a shifting landscape of culture? Psalm 78 gives a beautiful vision for generational discipleship through the Israelites – He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children, that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments... (NIV). The work of Jesus only further clarifies the importance of us passing our faith on to the next generation, and that is what you are doing week after week! Carry on in the strength of a God who has sustained generations past and will continue to show His faithfulness to us and the generations to come!

“Why don't you put some joy in it?” A colleague shared that she had many needs and stresses on her mind but was forgetting to focus on all that the Lord has done. There are many things in our world that could cause us to look only to the needs and stress around us. Let us remember Psalm 100:5 “For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.” Praise Him!

Field Updates: What a joy to lead in four Basic Training events in MN and WI. It is always great to see the many leaders who have hearts to reach kids with the love of Jesus. Tim also got to be a producer to help the Virtual Awana Ministry Conference in August. The privilege to meet with pastors and share coffee and life is always a blessing as well. Driving north through the beautiful fall colors and hiking to see the waterfalls, was an amazing way to spend Tim's October birthday. It was a joy to travel with family to CO to see Tim's mom and family. Praise God for His amazing love that He bestows on us. We appreciate prayers for health and stamina through full times of ministry and life. Pray for God's constant direction as to the ministry He would have us focus on.
