Life Group Questions

1. One of the reasons Paul wrote to the church in Philippi was to encourage them to live out the gospel.
  - a. Is living out the gospel difficult for you? Why or Why not?
  - b. Describe how you are currently living out the gospel.

2. The first point in the application of living out the gospel is that we need to have the right priorities.
  - a. What are your current priorities? What would those around you say your priorities are? Is there a discrepancy between the two? If so, why?
  - b. Why don't we usually have the right priorities?

3. What are the priorities we should have for Christian living?
  - d. What would it take to change or realign your priorities?

4. Epaphroditus risked his life for the sake of the Philippians. What are some practical ways you can be a risk taker for Christ?

People are available Sunday mornings at the conclusion of each service to pray confidentially for your concerns. Simply come to the front as others are leaving - look for those wearing name tags. You can also email us your prayer requests.
