Missionary Sunday – August 6th

Charles & Julie Champlin and David Hurlbert will be sharing their missionary experiences with us on Sunday, August 6th. Charles will give the sermon at both services, and Julie has a special time planned for children in the Nehemiah Center during the 10:30 service. The kids will be dismissed after the worship music to meet with Julie. She will read the children's book she wrote for her grandchildren describing children in a Wai Wai village and what their lives are like. It will be projected on the screen so all can see the pictures. Julie will add to the story as she goes along and answer questions. She’ll talk about growing up right here at MBC and how she came to be a missionary in Brazil. The Missions Ministry hopes to plant seeds in our children so when they think about what they want to be when they grow up, it might include listening for a call from God like Julie did.

There will also be an "Eat & Greet" after the second service in the Nehemiah Center with barbecues provided by the Missions Ministry. We would like those staying for the event to bring a side, chips, or dessert if they would like to help round out a quick meal. David Hurlbert will talk about and thank MBC for his recent short-term mission trip, and then Charles and Julie will share their long-term missionary work (over 25 years) in Brazil.
