Today, at church I learned:

Read Luke 10:29-37 and answer the questions. Circle the letter of each correct answer. Find the spaces in section 1 that contain the same letter as the answer to the question #1, and color them in. Do the same with the other three sections.

1. A man was going to Jericho when he fell into whose hands?
  - hermits
  - robbers
  - soldiers
2. A priest passed by the man. Who else passed by?
  - a merchant
  - a Jew
  - a Levite
3. Who took pity on the man?
  - a Samaritan
  - an innkeeper
  - the governor
4. Which of the three was a neighbor to the hurt man?
  - the priest
  - the Levite
  - the Samaritan

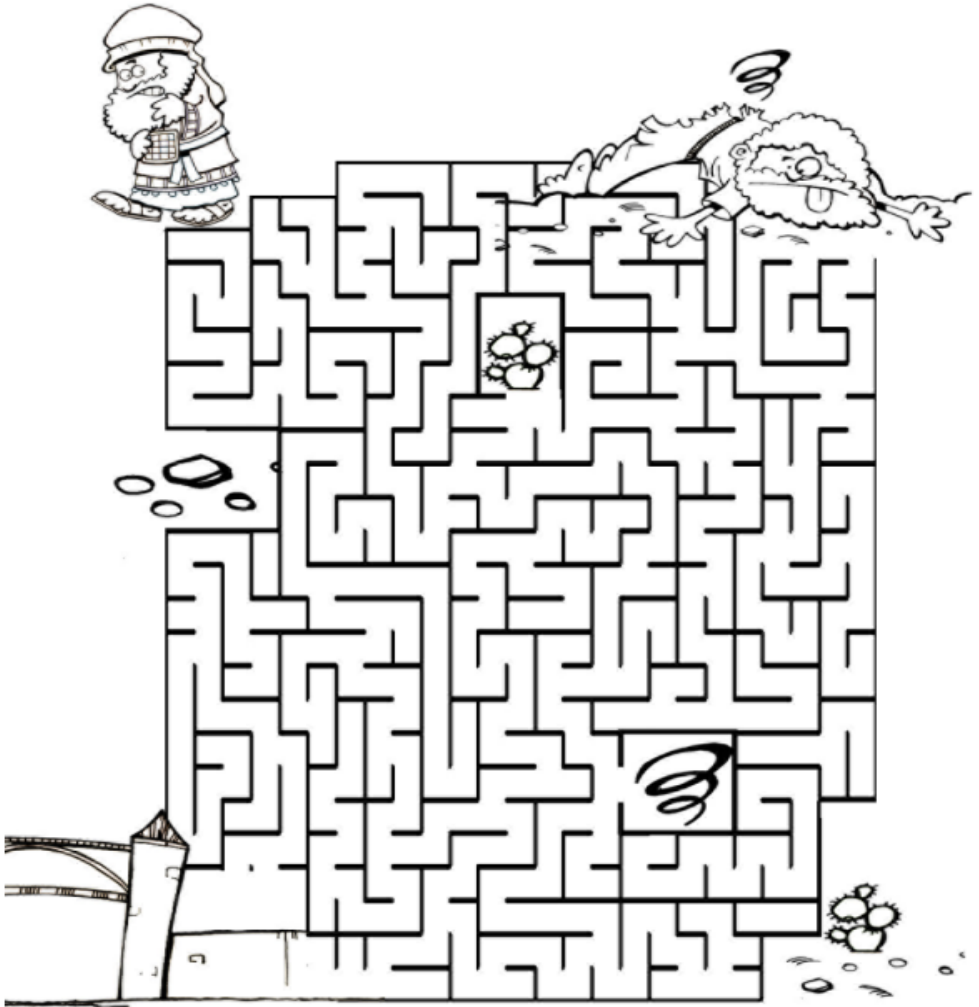

Jesus wants us to show love and be kind to everyone. Not just the people we care about the most but also the people we don't know. It doesn't matter what they look like or where they come from. Never ignore people when they are in need and help them no matter who or what they are.

Think about it: How can we show people we care about them?

Why do you think it is important to God?

Help the Samaritan find the right path to Jericho.

Not only does Jesus tell us to love our neighbors but he says that the first and greatest commandment is to love God with all our heart and soul and mind and strength.

The story of Mary and Martha reminds us of what is truly important. Jesus was traveling and Martha invited Him into their home. While Martha was busy cooking, Mary sat at the feet of Jesus and listened to Him. Martha complained but Jesus told her that Mary was doing the most important thing, spending time with Him! Jesus is the most important thing; more important than all the good things we can be busy with.
