

Text: Luke 10:25-11:13
Topics: Loving God & People, Prayer, Serving
Series: That You Know Jesus

Monroe Bible Church
November 12, 2023
Pastor Dan Krahenbuhl

What Should I Do?

I. The Priority of Love (10:25-37)

Every-part of us expressions of love for God and others is essential.

II. The Place of Serving (10:38-42)

Listening to is more important than doing for the Lord.

III. The Practice of Prayer (11:1-13)

Ask and trust God for your needs.

Jesus taught His followers to pursue a working relationship with God before religious workings for God.

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

1. Read Luke 10:25-37. What does the text reveal about the lawyer? What was his real issue and how did Jesus help him see it?

It's easy for church people to justify themselves, at least subconsciously, worthy of eternal life. In what ways are you tempted to do this?

Ask God to help you evaluate your love for Him and your love for others. What is He telling you?

2. Read Luke 10:38-42. What is right in Mary's, and not right in Martha's, response to the presence of Jesus?

Can you give an example of when you are or have been more like Mary?
More like Martha?

3. What point is Jesus making about prayer in Luke 11:1-9?

4. What point is Jesus making about prayer in Luke 11:10-13?

What specific application about your prayer life can you take from what Jesus teaches in Luke 11:1-13?

5. Compare what the people do, or ask about doing, with the answers Jesus gives in this passage (Luke 10:25-11:13). What is Jesus emphasizing?

Ask God to point out one change you can make to better align your life with His desire for you. Write it down here.