

The steady intake of God's Word can become a joy and a delight each day. The Word of God is true (John 17:17) and powerful (Heb 4:12), to transform our lives (Rom 12:2), into the people God wants us to be. The Holy Spirit, who resides in every true believer (1 Cor 6:19), gives us understanding of His Word (1 Cor 2:12). Therefore, the goal of Bible reading is to listen to the Holy Spirit for the application He is impressing on you through the truth you are reading.

Here's the format— Read, Discuss, Pray, Share. That's it.

Anyone can start anytime throughout the year.

READ: The reading plan is 25 days per month, which is approximately 6 days per week. Read the passage(s) for that day (together and out loud for families) Each day's New Testament reading should only take about 5 minutes. Begin there. The Old Testament passages are 10 or more minutes.

DISCUSS: Ask: What is the passage saying? Then ask... What should I do in response to it? (If you are single write your thoughts in a notebook.) Each day's discussion need not take longer than 5-7 minutes.

PRAY: Pray something relative to what was just read, and for you/your family's needs that day.

SHARE: Make it a point to share what God impressed on you with someone else during the day.

TIPS

- Find a time of day that works every day, six days a week. For married couples make sure both husband and wife agree and work together to establish this habit.
- Begin with the New Testament reading. A good first goal is to establish daily bible reading. If you try to do too much you are more likely to be become over-whelmed and quit. After daily Bible reading becomes part of your routine add the poetry (Psalms, Proverbs, etc.) reading for the next step. Lastly, perhaps add the Old Testament. This may be after the first month or two or several months or even a year.
- If you miss, feel free to skip a reading, or some readings. Trying to "catch up" can be overwhelming and cause you to miss the goal.
- Don't worry about what you don't understand. When the time is right, and God wants you to understand it, He will give you understanding.

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the Lord are true; they are righteous altogether. They are much more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb. Moreover, by them Your servant is warned; in keeping them is great reward.

Psalm 19:7-11

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.
